

AMERIND FOUNDATION MUSEUM
520-586-3666
www.amerind.org

65 miles east of Tucson on I-10, Exit 318
2100 N. Amerind Road
P.O. Box 400
Dragoon, AZ 85609

Located in the massive rock formations of Texas Canyon, the Amerind Foundation is an archaeological research facility and museum. The name Amerind, a contraction of American Indian, illustrates the purpose of the foundation, which is devoted to the study of Native American culture and history. Museum shop, scenic picnic area.

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
520-628-5774
www.arizonahistorical.org

Arizona History Museum
949 E. 2nd St.
Tucson, AZ 85719

Step back into the daily life of the 1870s in a hands-on exhibit. Explore a full-size replica of a turn-of-the-century underground mine. Learn about archaeology and uncover 4,000 years of history along the Santa Cruz River. Visit our Research Library and Archives to learn more about Arizona history. The four Tucson museums are the Arizona History Museum, Downtown History Museum, Sosa-Carrillo-Fremont House, and Fort Lowell Museum.

ARIZONA-SONORA DESERT MUSEUM
520-883-2702
www.desertmuseum.org

In Tucson Mountain Park
2021 N. Kinney Rd.
Tucson, AZ 85743

The Desert Museum is a zoological park, botanical garden, art gallery, and geology museum all in one — a total environment in which visitors can learn to appreciate the plants, animals, landscape, and ecology of the Sonoran Desert region.

ARIZONA STATE MUSEUM
520-621-6302
www.statemuseum.arizona.edu

University of Arizona
NE corner of Park Ave. and University Blvd.
1013 E. University Blvd.
Tucson, AZ 85721

Experience the indigenous cultures of Arizona, the greater Southwest, and northern Mexico at Arizona State Museum — the oldest and largest anthropology museum in the region. Dynamic exhibitions, engaging programs, a renowned research library, and an educational museum store interest visitors of all ages. ASM is a Smithsonian Institution affiliate and home of the world's largest collection of Southwest Indian pottery.

CASA GRANDE VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY & MUSEUM
520-636-2223
www.cgvhs.org

110 W. Florence Blvd.
Casa Grande, AZ 85222

Explore the rich heritage of rural Southern Arizona and the 19th-century mining boom. View the miniature agricultural display and learn how irrigation turned sandy plains into lush cotton fields. Discover the people that come alive through our research facilities and photographic reproductions.

CASTAÑEDA MUSEUM OF ETHNIC COSTUME
520-299-4129
www.castanedamuseum.org

The Castañeda Museum of Ethnic Costume exhibits ethnic and folk costume from around the world through textiles, dolls, and masks. As we await construction of our own facility, we periodically exhibit items from our collections at other institutions in Tucson. Please call us for more information.

CENTER FOR CREATIVE PHOTOGRAPHY
520-621-7968
www.creativephotography.org

University of Arizona
SE corner of Park Ave. and Speedway Blvd.
Tucson, AZ 85721

CCP is one of the leading photographic institutions in the world, offering changing exhibitions, lectures and special events, a research center, library, museum store, and access to the collection through the Print Viewing program (by appointment).

COLOSSAL CAVE MOUNTAIN PARK
520-647-7275
www.colossalcave.com

16 miles southeast of Tucson
16721 E. Old Spanish Trail
Vail, AZ 85641

Beautiful 2,400 acre desert park, showcases Colossal Cave and La Posta Quemada Ranch and offers daily tours of the Cave's crystal formations, historical exhibits, and displays of prehistoric Indian artifacts. The 120-year-old working Ranch features a library and museum exploring the history of the park.

DEGRAZIA GALLERY IN THE SUN
520-299-9191
www.degrazia.org

6300 N. Swan Road
Tucson, AZ 85718

A landmark in Tucson, DeGrazia's Gallery in the Sun is a unique adobe structure, featuring original Ettore "Ted" DeGrazia art. The gallery was designed by the artist and constructed under his supervision.

FLANDRAU: THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA SCIENCE CENTER
520-621-STAR
www.getUASciencecenter.org

University of Arizona
NE corner of Cherry Ave. and University Blvd.
1601 E. University Blvd.
Tucson, AZ 85721

Explore Flandrau: The UA Science Center and experience the depths of outer space in our planetarium theater and public observatory. Marvel at the natural beauty of unique specimens in the Mineral Museum, experiment with wonders of science in our exhibit hall, and excite your young scientist with special gifts from the Science Store.

INTERNATIONAL WILDLIFE MUSEUM
520-617-1439
www.thewildlifemuseum.org

Five miles west of I-10 on Speedway Blvd.
4800 W. Gates Pass Rd.
Tucson, AZ 85745

The International Wildlife Museum is a non-profit educational program of the Safari Club International Foundation dedicated to increasing knowledge and appreciation of the world's diverse wildlife as well as explaining the role of wildlife management in conservation. The museum highlights more than 400 species of animals in exhibits re-creating their natural habitat.

KITT PEAK NATIONAL OBSERVATORY
520-318-8726
www.noao.edu

56 miles southwest of Tucson on Ajo Way/Hwy. 86
Housing the world's largest collection of optical telescopes, Kitt Peak, on the Tohono O'odham Reservation, is home to twenty-two optical and two radio telescopes representing dozens of astronomical research institutions. Tours daily and evening observing programs by RSVP only.

LA PILITA MUSEUM
520-882-7454
www.lapilita.com

420 S. Main Avenue
Tucson, AZ 85701
La Pilita is a living repository of photos and oral histories of Barrio Viejo and El Hoyo. Come stand on the ground that was the entrance to Tucson's upscale parks of the late 1800s — Carrillo Gardens and Elysian Grove. With a vivid imagination, you can hear the waters of El Ojito Spring that cooled the thirst of ancient Hohokam people, explorers, Spanish soldiers, and Apaches before it disappeared below the ground in the early 1900s.

PIMA AIR AND SPACE MUSEUM
520-574-0462
www.pimaair.org

6000 E. Valencia Rd.
Tucson, AZ 85706
Climb aboard JFK's Air Force One or enjoy supersonic speed in our flight simulator attraction. Take photographs of 270 unique and rare aircraft or explore outer space. For more than 25 years, millions have visited the world's largest privately funded aerospace museum. Now it's your turn to take flight.

PIMA COUNTY NATURAL RESOURCES, PARKS AND RECREATION
520-877-6000
www.pima.gov/nrpr

3500 West River Rd.
Tucson, AZ 85741

Pima County, Arizona established its Parks and Recreation Department in 1947 to serve urban and rural residents and guests by providing leisure-time destinations and services. We lead community efforts to conserve the Sonoran Desert and enhance the urban environment while providing quality recreational, educational, and leisure activities. The Agua Caliente Ranch House Gallery and Visitor's Center at 12325 E. Roger Rd. offers tours of the historic 1870s ranch house; changing exhibits of mixed media displays from local and national artists; and Tucson Audubon Nature Shop.

POSTAL HISTORY FOUNDATION
520-647-6652
www.postalhistoryfoundation.org

920 N. 1st Ave
Tucson, AZ 85719

The museum houses an 1800s postal station along with artifacts, stamp exhibits, and unique philatelic materials. Visitors tour a philatelic library, sales department featuring worldwide stamps, and a quaint U.S. Post Office. The Foundation offers youth education programs.

REID PARK ZOO
520-791-4022
www.tucsonzoo.org

Randolph Way, north of 22nd St., west of Alvernon
1100 S. Randolph Way
Tucson, AZ 85716

Come visit the zoo and have a wild time. Explore naturalistic habitats housing more than 500 exotic animals from around the world, including rhinos, polar bears, and anteaters. Adventure in our African, Asian, and South American regions. Reid Park Zoo is involved in captive breeding programs for several threatened and endangered species.

SONORAN ARTHROPOD STUDIES INSTITUTE
520-883-3945
www.sasionline.org

P.O. Box 5624
Tucson, AZ 85703

Fostering awareness, knowledge, and appreciation of all nature through the study and interpretation of the vital role played by arthropods in the Sonoran Desert ecosystem. Visits and school programs by appointment.

SOUTHERN ARIZONA TRANSPORTATION MUSEUM
520-623-2223
www.tucsonhistoricdepot.org

North of Congress St. via 6th Ave.
414 N. Toole Ave.
Tucson, AZ 85701

Located at the former Southern Pacific Depot site, the museum focuses on the impact of transportation on Tucson, the on site Steam Locomotive no. 1673, and the Depot buildings. This free museum is located on the Presidio Trail walking tour.

TOHONO CHUL PARK
520-742-6455
www.tohonochulpark.org

7366 N. Paseo Del Norte
Tucson, AZ 85704

The Southwest center where nature, art, and culture connect, this 49-acre desert preserve features demonstration gardens, nature trails, a "geology wall" interpreting the nearby Santa Catalinas, changing art and cultural exhibits, a retail greenhouse, museum shops, and tearoom. Education programs, concerts, tours, and special events are offered throughout the year. Discover its nature!

TUCSON AUDUBON SOCIETY
520-629-0510
www.tucsonaudubon.org

SE corner of University Blvd. and 5th Ave
300 E. University Blvd, #120
Tucson, AZ 85705

Tucson Audubon Society is dedicated to improving the quality of the environment by providing education, conservation, and recreation programs, as well as environmental leadership and information. Our Mason Audubon Center is 22 acres of mostly pristine saguaro-ironwood forest located at 8751 N. Thornydale Road. Visits by appointment only.

TUCSON BOTANICAL GARDENS
520-326-9686
www.tucsonbotanical.org

2150 N. Alvernon Way
Tucson, AZ 85712

Stroll through 16 different gardens, including a Historical Garden, a Bird and Butterfly Garden, a traditional Barrio Garden. More than 1,200 different types of plants all on one 5-acre urban sanctuary. Enjoy the architecture of the historic Porter Home and the numerous fountains throughout the Gardens. Elegant gift shop, nursery, daily tours and classes.

TUCSON CHILDREN'S MUSEUM
520-792-9985
www.tucsonchildrensmuseum.org

Two blocks south of Broadway Blvd.
200 S. 6th Ave
Tucson, AZ 85701

This innovative museum offers a unique hands-on experience through cultural, science, and health exhibits, plus a year-round series of educational and fun workshops, programs, and special events. Group tours are available.

TUCSON MUSEUM OF ART & HISTORIC BLOCK
520-624-2333
www.tucsonarts.com

140 N. Main Ave.
Tucson, AZ 85701

Established in 1924 and located in the historic El Presidio District, Tucson Museum of Art maintains a permanent collection of more than 6,500 works of art. Each year the museum presents ten to twelve visiting exhibitions of works in all media. The Historic Block features five of Tucson's oldest homes. Exciting art, history, an elegant Museum Shop, Art Schools, library, Café, tours, and sculpture gardens are on the grounds.

TUCSON RODEO PARADE MUSEUM
520-294-1280
www.tucsonrodeoparade.org

4823 S. 6th Ave.
Tucson, AZ 85702

The museum's inventory includes 150 vehicles, ranging from small buggies, wagons, surreys, and coaches; historic artifacts from pioneer days; and a re-created western Main Street representing what early "wild west" Tucson would have looked like and offered in terms of business and services, as well as historical memorabilia.

TUMACACÓRI NATIONAL HISTORIC PARK
520-398-2341
www.nps.gov/tuma

50 miles south of Tucson off I-19 at Exit 29
P.O. Box 67
Tumacacóri, AZ 85640

Tumacacóri National Historical Park tells the story of the earliest missions in Arizona and of the native people who lived here. Visitors tour the mission church, cemetery, outlying structures and grounds in a peaceful and quiet atmosphere reminiscent of the period in which they were established. Self- and ranger-led tours are offered along with a museum, video, and bookstore. Guests may access more than 300 acres of adjacent mission lands including the flowing Santa Cruz River and enjoy hiking, bird-watching and photography. A great place for kids.

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA MINERAL MUSEUM
520-621-4227
www.geo.arizona.edu/minimms

University of Arizona
NE corner of Cherry Ave. and University Blvd.
(located in Flandrau Science Center)
1601 E. University Blvd.
Tucson, AZ 85721

More than 15,000 minerals, gems, and meteorites with an emphasis on Arizona's and Mexico's rich mineral heritage. Micromount collection is available by appointment.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA MUSEUM OF ART AND ARCHIVE OF VISUAL ART
520-621-7567
http://artmuseum.arizona.edu

University of Arizona
SE corner of Speedway Blvd. and Park Ave.
Tucson, AZ 85721

Treasures from the 15th-century retablo of Ciudad Rodrigo to the flower power of Georgia O'Keeffe in one museum. The UAMA & AVA is the proud home to a superb collection of Renaissance and later European and American art works. Public programs, lectures, tours offered throughout the year.

VAIL PRESERVATION SOCIETY
419-4428
Vailpreservationsociety@gmail.com

13105-2 East Colossal Cave Rd.
Vail, AZ 85641

Creating community connections through local history. The Vail Preservation Society works to preserve and present local history. We do this through community partnerships, outreach and public programming.

Place
Stamp
Here

PO Box 40991
Tucson, AZ 85717-0991
www.tucsonmuseums.org

Tucson Association of Museums

It is the mission of the Tucson Association of Museums, a non-profit organization, to promote the educational and cultural value of member museums to the community; work to increase support for these institutions from a private sector; and provide a mechanism for communication and collaboration between member museums.

Visit TAM'S website, your Gateway to Tucson's Museums.
www.tucsonmuseums.org

Member Museums

Arts

- Center for Creative Photography
- De Grazia Gallery in the Sun
- Tucson Museum of Art & Historic Block
- University of Arizona Museum of Art & Archive of Visual Art

Children

- Tucson Children's Museum

Cultural - History

- The Amerind Foundation
- Arizona Historical Society
- Arizona State Museum
- Casa Grande Valley Historical Society
- ★ The Castaneda Museum of Ethnic Costume
- ★ Hammerblow Mining Museum
- La Pilita Museum
- Postal History Foundation
- Southern Arizona Transportation Museum
- Tucson Rodeo Parade Museum
- Tumacácori National Historic Park
- ★ Vail Preservation Society

Nature

- Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum
- Colossal Cave Mountain Park
- International Wildlife Museum
- Reid Park Zoo
- Sonoran Arthropod Studies Institute
- Tohono Chul Park
- Tucson Audubon Society
- Tucson Botanical Gardens
- Tucson Parks and Recreation

Science-Technology

- Flandrau: The University of Arizona Science Center
- Kitt Peak National Observatory
- Pima Air & Space Museum
- University of Arizona Mineral Museum
- ★ = Future Venue

